

Daniel M. Press to present at the 17th Annual Convention of the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys, May 29-31, 2009, in Chicago, IL

Daniel M. Press, of the law firm of Chung & Press, P.C., with offices in McLean and Annandale, Virginia, and Cumberland, Maryland, will be a featured panelist at the sold-out 17th Annual Convention of The National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys (NACBA) in Chicago, Illinois on May 29-31, 2009. NACBA is a national organization dedicated to serving the needs of consumer bankruptcy attorneys and to protecting the rights of consumer debtors in bankruptcy. The annual convention is a gathering of consumer bankruptcy attorneys from across the country and will address new developments in bankruptcy law and will present educational programs to practicing attorneys on all aspects of consumer bankruptcy.

Mr. Press will be a panelist on the basics of preparing, filing and prosecuting Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 bankruptcy cases. The panel is scheduled for Saturday, May 30 from 8:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

Mr. Press has been a partner with Chung & Press since 1993, where he practices bankruptcy law and litigation. A 1988 magna cum laude graduate of Georgetown University Law Center, he was an editor of the Georgetown Law Journal. He received his B.A. from The Johns Hopkins University. Mr. Press was a judicial law clerk for Hon. Jaime Pieras Jr. in the U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico. Mr. Press is a member of the Executive Council of the Consumer Bankruptcy Section of the Maryland State Bar Association. He is admitted to practice in Maryland, Virginia, and D.C., as well as other U.S. Appellate, District and Bankruptcy Courts around the country. He has spoken and taught on bankruptcy-related topics at numerous Continuing Legal Education seminars and programs sponsored by groups such as NACBA, the Maryland State Bar Association, the Virginia Bar Association, McLean Bar Association, the Bankruptcy Bar Association for the District of Maryland, and the Maryland Institute for Continuing Professional Education in the Law.
